

Spectacular Science Activity

Wind Formation Fill-In-The-Blanks

Look at the description of how wind is formed. You will see that certain words are replaced with a blank. Your job is to fill in those blanks using the word bank. Use the Spectacular Science episode to help you.
Write your answers in the blanks.

Refer to the last page for the answers.

Word Bank:

cold, rising, warm, sinking, spinning

How Wind is Formed

Wind is formed through the _____ and _____ of air. _____ air rises and _____ air sinks. When these two bodies of air encounter each other, they start moving in a _____ motion. That motion is almost like a loop. That loop moves the surrounding air. That is what wind is!

Spectacular Science Activity

Wind Formation Fill-In-The-Blanks

Answer Key

How Wind is Formed

Wind is formed through the rising and sinking of air. Warm air rises and cold air sinks. When these two bodies of air encounter each other, they start moving in a spinning motion. That motion is almost like a loop. That loop moves the surrounding air. That is what wind is!